

Dr. Mohammad Zahran Abuali 2017/2018

- An expert in science education for students of the preparatory stage in the Ministry of Education schools for 17 years.
- A two-year experience in school administration.
- Expert and assessor in the Queen Rania Al Abdullah Award for Educational Excellence in Jordan for 10 years.
- A staff member at the Faculty of Arts at the Al - Zaytoonah University
- A decision-maker at the Committee of Education in the Jordanian Society for Scientific Research.
- Participation in the project of the interactive series of science-based teaching conducted by the Jordanian Association for Scientific Research in cooperation with the European Union 2016/2017.
- An active participant and evaluator of school projects visiting participant students in their schools and offering guidance to them (in the Second National Conference "Express Yourself"; The interactive project – “The Teaching of Science Based on Investigation.

Researches:

- Educational System in Egypt and Jordan: A comparative Study.
- The reality of the strategic planning process in the Jordanian universities from the perspective of the faculty members who are engaged in administrative works.