

Dr. Ziad Mohammad Nemrawi	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Associate Professor at AL-Zaytoonah University of Jordan/ Faculty of Arts / Education Department since 2005 -Expert in Curriculum and Instruction / Mathematics Education -Trainer of teaching methodology in the Ministry of Education -Trainer in Tests and Examinations / Measurement and Evaluation for both Al-Zaytoonah Faculty members and school Teachers -Supervisor of Mathematics in the Ministry of Education for 5 years -Currently participating in a project for the development of mathematics school teachers Research papers: The Role of Authentic Evaluation in Developing the Classroom Performance of Teacher Trainees in Mathematics Instruction at the Third-Grade Level in Jordan / Dirasat Vol. 37 Teachers' Effectiveness in Implementing Social Constructivism in Teaching Mathematics and its Role in Developing the Mathematical Communication of Jordanian Sixth-Grade Students / Dirsat Vol. 38 The Levels of Geometric Thought in Conic Sections among Mathematics Majors at Al-Zaytoonah Private University / The Educational Journal Vol. 28 No. 111 The Effect of Multiple Intelligences Theory-Based Strategy on Classroom Education Students in the Attainment of Mathematical Concepts and in the Development of Their Beliefs about Learning Mathematics / Mu'tah Humanities and Social Sciences Series Vol. 29 No. 1 The Evaluation of the Mathematics School Textbook in Jordan / Educational Journal of Damascus University Vol. 30 No. 2
----------------------------------	---