

ISSN: 1857 - 7431 (Online)

ISSN: 1857 - 7881 (Print)

European Scientific Journal

January 2017

Vol. 13, No. 1

Interest Clause in the Constitutional Lawsuit in Accordance to the Constitutional Court in Jordan

Dr. Mohammed Ali Al-Shubaitat

Associate Professor of Constitutional and Administrative Law,
School of Law, Middle East University, Jordan

Dr. Hisham Hamed Salman Al-Karabseh

Assistant Professor of Constitutional and Administrative Law,
School of Law, Zaytoon University of Jordan, Jordan

DOI: 10.1044/jal.2017.42001.900 URL: <https://doi.org/10.1044/jal.2017.42001.900>

Abstract

This study aimed to shed light on one of the most important conditions of interest for filing the constitutional lawsuit of the case before the constitutional court. Through this statement, the concept of interest as a condition for accepting the constitutional lawsuit, as well as the right protected by the constitutional lawsuit is a right guaranteed by the Constitution. Also, the action which is basically the work of public authorities may take the form of the Act of Parliament, regulations, or an administrative decision issued by the executive authority. This is together with various characteristics that must be met for the interest clause in the constitutional case. The existence of a link between the interest on the constitutional lawsuit; the interest of the individual with legal, personal and financial interest; the interest of the law established by law; and the interest clause in the lawsuit should be made available throughout the stages of the proceedings. This should be made available when required or the time that. Also, it should continue to exist based on the conflict. This occurs especially if the interest is still available before the court reaches a verdict for any reason consequent upon expiration of the constitutional case.

Keywords: Constitutional lawsuit, Interest condition, objective

Introduction

One of the basic principles in the field of public interest is the upon obligation which is based on the focus of the lawsuit. The lawsuit does not exist without interest and it is one of the most important conditions to be met before it can be accepted. This lawsuit will be unacceptable if the interest clause is not available. Accordingly, in exception of unconstitutionality, with