EVENT DESCRIPTION

Event: Open Day / Info-day for the HANDS project

Date: Tuesday, 19/4/2022

Organizer: Albaath University / ABU

Location: Faculty of Architectural Engineering

HANDS project at ABU organized an open day activity that served as a platform to showcase and disseminate the project's activities. This event, held under the patronage of Prof. Bassam Ibrahim, the Minister of Higher Education and Scientific Research, along with ABU President Prof. Abed AlBaset Al-Khateeb, was a significant occasion for the project.

The primary focus of this event was to effectively communicate the outcomes and activities of the HANDS project. By doing so, it highlighted the achievements of the students involved, providing an opportunity to showcase their work and contributions within the project. This dissemination effort offering insights into the project's objectives, accomplishments, and the impact it had on the participating students.

The event served as a valuable platform to introduce the HANDS project to a wider audience, emphasizing its significance, achievements, and results derived from the workshops and courses conducted as part of this initiative.

By involving key figures such as the Minister of Higher Education, the university president, and other stakeholders, this enhanced the project's visibility and credibility. It also provided an opportunity for networking, collaboration, and potentially attracting support or partnerships that could further the project's objectives and impact.
