EVENT DESCRIPTION

Event: HANDS Workshop / Traditional Crafts Applications in Architecture and Interior Design / Meeting with Advisory Board

Date: Saturday, 17/10/2020

Organizer: Al-Zaytoonah University of Jordan (ZUJ)

Location: Online via ZOOM

This workshop is organized by ZUJ with members of the project advisory board, the Jordanian and Syrian partners to bring the knowledge and expertise of the project advisory board for the benefit of the HANDS project.

The event starts with a welcome speech and an introduction by the project general coordinator providing an overview of the projects goals and objectives. Following the introductory session, members of the advisory board share their knowledge and expertise. They presented from their experience and specialized knowledge some case study projects relevant to the HANDS project. Additionally, the event includes presentations from craft specialists from Jordanian Universities.

This workshop presented a range of perspectives and expertise to be shared within the context of the HANDS project. It encourages collaboration, knowledge exchange, and the utilization of specialized skills to further the project's goals.
