EVENT DESCRIPTION

Event: HANDS Workshop / Principles of Sewing Workshop

Date: 16-27 July 2023

Organizer: Al-Zaytoonah University of Jordan

Location: Fashion Design workshop / Dep. of Fashion Design

This is a 2 weeks' sewing training workshop conducted at ZUJ with full support by ZUJ administration for local Madaba community and Syrian refugees attended by 20 women with basic education. showcasing the project's dedication to empowering women through skills development. By providing targeted support and training, the project played a pivotal role in levelling the playing field for people from disadvantaged backgrounds, aligning with broader goals of social equity and economic sustainability.

This exemplified the project's comprehensive approach to fostering skill development, community engagement, and social cohesion.

Objective: The primary objective of the workshop was to empower women through skill development in sewing, thereby contributing to their economic independence and social cohesion within the community.

Methodology: The workshop employed a hands-on approach, with practical sewing sessions. Participants learned various sewing techniques, garment construction, and basic pattern making under the guidance of experienced ZUJ staff.

Impact: The workshop exemplified the project's dedication to empowering women through skills development. By providing targeted support and training, the project levelled the playing field for individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds, aligning with broader goals of social equity and economic sustainability.

Conclusion: The sewing training workshop at ZUJ served as a testament to the project's comprehensive approach to fostering skill development, community engagement, and social cohesion. By empowering women with valuable skills, the project not only enhanced their economic opportunities but also contributed to building a more inclusive and equitable society.
