“The Bus Rapid Transit in Amman: A Promising Strategy for Sustainable Spatial Development?”

Jordan Engineering Association Annual Magazine

May 2014

Muna Shalan

Abstract:

Public transportation in Amman is faced with many challenges, especially in such a dynamic urbanized context characterized by rapid urbanization, fragmented urban environment, weak socio-economic, neo-liberal urban governance policies, and volatile geopolitical conditions. This paper briefly shed lights on the case of the Bus Rapid Transit (BRT), which has been recently celebrated as a flag-ship project to deal with the ill-structured transportation system in Amman city.