

" العدالة والحق "
" Justice & the right "

جامعة الزيتونة الأردنية
Al-Zaytoonah University of Jordan
كلية الحقوق
Faculty of Law

" عراقة وجوده "
" Tradition and Quality "

Brief course description For Master of law - Comprehensive - Course Plan Development and Updating Procedures\ Law Department	QF06/0409-3.0E
---	-----------------------

Course Plan No.	1/2014–2015	Approval Date	12/2/2015	Number of Courses	14
------------------------	--------------------	----------------------	------------------	--------------------------	-----------

Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601711	Civil Law \ Depth studies	3

A study of jurisdiction, civil action and its procedures, judicial judgment, procedures of appeal and enforcement of judgment, followed by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics. Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.

Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601712	The law of civil procedures and Execution \ Depth studies	3

A study of jurisdiction, civil action and its procedures, judicial judgment, procedures of appeal and enforcement of judgment, followed by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics. Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.

Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601714	Law of labour and social security \ Depth studies	3

This course studies the labour law and its importance, development, international organization to some of its elements, sources, independence and scope of application. It then studies the legal rules, organizing the single labour contract as to its elements conclusion, period, effect which includes the rights and obligations of its parties and sanctions for its breach. The course also studies the legal structure of collective labour relations whether those relating to collective labour contracts, trade various or settlement of labour disputes in accordance with the Jordanian Labour Law and agreements relating to labour.

The course studies general principles in the social security law as to its definition, development and scope of application. It also studies rules for insurance against work injuries and illness, insurance against old age, disability and death, insurance against temporary disability due to illness; it also studies motherhood, comprehensive insurance for employees and family grants. Finally its studies insurance against unemployment with some emphasis on the detailed provisions of the first and second types of insurance which are currently applied in Jordan. Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.

Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601721	The Criminal Law \ Depth studies	3

A study of the theory of crime and punishment, criminal responsibility and the law of criminal procedures, followed by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics. Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.

Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601731	Commercial Law \ Depth studies	3

A study of the principles of commercial law, including topics such as commercial transactions, merchants, bankruptcy, commercial papers and banking followed by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics. Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.

" العدالة والحق "
" Justice & the right "

جامعة الزيتونة الأردنية
Al-Zaytoonah University of Jordan
كلية الحقوق
Faculty of Law

" عراقة وجوده "
" Tradition and Quality "

Brief course description For Master of law - Comprehensive - Course Plan Development and Updating Procedures\ Law Department	QF06/0409-3.0E
---	-----------------------

Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601741	Public international Law \ Depth studies	3
A study of the theory of public international law, its sources, its persons, international responsibility, peaceful settlement of international disputes, armed conflicts, law of the sea, and the general theory of international organizations, followed by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics. Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.
Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601751	Administrative Law and Judiciary \ Depth studies	3
A study of the theory of administrative law, administrative organization, local and central administrative organization, administrative methods, public service, financial and administrative decisions, followed by a comparative study of one of those topics. It's also deals with the definition of Administrative justice and its distinction from ordinary justice in France. It studies also the principle of legitimacy as to its meaning and sources showing the restraints over this principle or any other parallel to it like the discretionary power of the administrative decisions immune from annulment. The study also deals with the supervision on the acts of the administration whether Administrative, Political or judicial. In the field of judicial supervision the course extensively studies the annulment action as to its definition, characteristics and the court having jurisdiction to hear such actions in Jordan besides the procedural and subjective conditions for the said action. Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.
Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601761	Methods of Scientific Research	3
This course includes studying all information about legal, from its principles sources, analytical, and interpretation, focusing at the methods of writing researches, comparative and analytical, and comment at judicial procedure, and provision of articles. Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.
Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601713	Private international law \ Depth studies	3
A study of the theory of the conflict of laws including the conditions of the application of the rules of conflict, their sources, technicalities and the applications of the rules of the RENVOL, and comparative study of one of those topics. Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.
Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601715	Contracts of insurance \ Depth studies	3
The course includes a definition of the insurance law from the old and new concepts, the technical principles of the insurance contract and its raise, development, types of insurance, characteristics of each type and the view of Islamic Jurisprudence on Insurance contracts. The course also studies the risk in insurance as to its conditions, premiums, elements significant in its determination, the principle of interest in insurance contract, characteristics of insurance contract, consequences of the contracts, obligation of its parties, subrogation, direct action, prescription and also a study of a number of applications on insurance contracts such as a car and fire insurance. Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.

" العدالة والحق "
" Justice & the right "

جامعة الزيتونة الأردنية
Al-Zaytoonah University of Jordan
كلية الحقوق
Faculty of Law

" عراقة وجودة "
" Tradition and Quality "

Brief course description For Master of law - Comprehensive - Course Plan Development and Updating Procedures\ Law Department	QF06/0409-3.0E
---	-----------------------

Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601732	Law of intellectual property \ Depth studies	3

The study starts with a summary of history of commercial legislations and then a study of the nature of industrial property as to its legislative sources national or international, and a study of the principles of Industrial property in general and their position in the Arab Countries and in Jordan with some emphasis on patent rights and how they are granted and cancelled, their protection and restraints that might be imposed on them.

The course also studies trade and industrial marks as to their function, conditions, owner's rights, cancellation, commercial manners, trading premises, and legal transaction that might be carried on them such as sale or mortgage.

It then studies technology transfer and intellectual property in accordance with the copy rights laws and the Bern convention relating to the international protection of copy rights.

Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.

Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601733	The law of companies \ Depth studies	3

This course aims at defining legal rules, governing the operation of commercial companies and the legal system for Bankruptcy and it includes.

Studying the historical development of commercial companies, studying types of companies and legal rules governing their establishment, conditions for its registration, management, dismemberment, liquidation and also a study of holding companies and foreign companies.

The course also studies the system of bankruptcy, its characteristics and the special rules for its declaration as to its conditions, procedures, nature, ways to challenge it and its effect. It also studies receivers and management of the Bankrupt's possessions besides studying methods of ending bankruptcy and crimes of bankruptcy, liquidation and rehabilitation and its conditions. Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.

Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601742	Human rights \ Depth studies	3

An introduction to human rights, its development, and a detailed study of fundamental freedoms in an ancient history, middle ages as well as modern times, including a comprehensive study of human rights codification in contemporary legal and constitutional systems as it is stated in international declaration and covenants as well as minority rights in international law, individual status in international law and judiciary, and a comparative study of all the above-mentioned rights with sharia principles and the constitution of Jordan.

Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.

Course No.	Course Name	Credit Hours
0601752	Constitutional law and political systems \ Depth studies	3

A study of the theory of constitutional law and political along with the political system and constitution of Jordan, followed by an analytical and comparative study of topics such as the principle of separation of powers and judicial review of legislation. Following by an analytical and comparative study of one of those topics.

The number of the decision recommendation of law Dept.	(2014/13/02)	Date of the decision	21/12/2014
The number of the decision of faculty of law	(2014/14/03)	Date of the decision	22/12/2014