

Refugee's Real Situations Between their Rights and Duties in Jordan

By

khalid rbye eyd alhuayan

Subervisor

Dr. Sarah Mahmoud Al Arasi

Abstract

This study focuses on the rights and duties of Refugees in their real situation in Jordan, and the importance of resorting and the huge number of refugees in side Jordan. Joined the special convention for refugees in 1951, which considered the rule for countries to deal with refugee's situation the researcher discussed the really situation of the refugee, and the definition of this word as it's really meaning, and whom we can call him as refugee, to be distinguished from other names, to make it clear what does the refugee mean, and what are his the convention of 1951 it has been clear the legal Itinerary that used to deal with refugees, through explaining the verdicts which included in the conventions which was signed by the Jordanian government, which care of refugee's situations on the other hand, The researcher, explained that the legal organizations and international organization which care about refugees, a warded them the rights of living, working and healthy care, when the researcher made a sample of examination of the awareness of refugees about their rights, 150 persons were chosen, in their places . The great results explained that all of the refugees in Jordan were awarded all of their rights, depends on the rules of convention between Jordan and the high commissariats of refugees –and refugees do all of their duties in high quality way and comply the general protocol to live safely.