Abstract

This study aims to identify the concept of governance within the venture capital company's system. This study also seeks to apply the principles of corporate governance to the issuance of transferable bonds in venture capital companies and on their board of directors, given their role in supporting emerging companies and their contribution to economic development programmes. It leads to achieving local development, and based on its importance, the Jordanian legislator stipulated this type of company in the second clause of Paragraph (f) of Article Seven of the Jordanian Companies Law No. (22) of 1997, and the legislator also regulated the provisions of these companies under Regulation No. (143) for the year 2018 and was called the Venture Capital Companies Regulation, The researcher followed the descriptive approach and the analytical approach to answer the questions of this study, and this study is divided into two chapters. The researcher reached several results, the most important of which was the inadequacy of the provisions of the corporate law and the system of venture capital companies in regulating the provisions of this company.
